Student Code of Conduct

KTEC High School is committed to providing a safe, engaging, and supportive learning environment where all policies are enforced fairly and consistently. KTEC High policies and regulations emphasize instruction and rehabilitation rather than punishment and are designed to foster and reward appropriate behavior and keep students connected to school while developing the skills to be college and career ready.

The KTEC High Student Code of Conduct provides a framework to support behavioral goals and disciplinary policies. All students are expected to be aware of and abide by this Student Code of Conduct. Parents/guardians are encouraged to read the Student Code of Conduct carefully and to discuss the information with their children. KTEC High School employees will follow the Student Code of Conduct when supporting students and in determining the consequences for violations.

KTEC High Student, Staff, Family and Community Commitments

Overarching Commitments

The connections we establish by valuing our students, families and colleagues will empower our children to achieve success. All operations will be responsive, accountable, efficient, and student-centered. Schools, families, and community partners, working together, will deliver on these overarching commitments through a focus on student-centered practices, inclusive relationships, and responsive and efficient operations.

Student Expectations

- Attend and engage in all learning experiences.
- Complete independent learning experiences and submit assignments in a timely manner.
- Give your best effort and persist in your work.
- Seek clarification, when needed, to understand the expectations for grading and attendance.
- Set personal goals and be aware of your academic progress.
- Ask questions and actively seek assistance from teachers and other school staff when you need support.
- Build positive and supportive relationships with students and staff, demonstrating the acceptance of differences, with regards to, but not limited to, race, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, religion, language, disability, etc.
- Practice self-care strategies and seek well-being supports when needed.
- Be knowledgeable about KTEC High policies, regulations, and available resources for students.
- Recognize how actions affect other students and school staff and, if harm occurs, that there is an opportunity to restore relationships.
- Avoid participating in any behavior or activity that intentionally or unintentionally causes harm to yourself or others.
- Create a learning environment to support your academic success.
- Co-create a positive classroom community where all students can learn in a supportive, safe, and welcoming environment.
- Seek and participate in opportunities to express values, opinions, beliefs, and perspectives in a respectful and civil manner.

Staff Responsibilities

- Be knowledgeable about KTEC High policies, regulations, and available resources to support students and staff.
- Establish a positive school culture that focuses on building relationships with staff, students, families, and community
- Support students' social-emotional skills development by providing a safe, nurturing, and inclusive culture that embraces diversity and racial equity.
- Adhere to KTEC High expectations for consistent delivery of instructional content and messaging by planning high quality instruction that meets the needs of diverse learners.
- Ensure students receive required special education services, Section 504 accommodations, and other necessary supports to address diverse learning needs.
- Monitor, support, and co-create a classroom community where all students can learn in a positive, supportive, safe, and welcoming environment.
- Encourage students to establish a learning environment that supports their engagement.
- Seek out support, when needed, for professional and/or technological challenges.
- Prioritize self-care practices/strategies and personal well-being. Resources are available to support you.
- Accept and support students' identities and experiences with regards to, but not limited to, race, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, religion, language, and disability. Demonstrate how different backgrounds being represented in the classroom can enhance student engagement.
- Acknowledge and seek to correct personal biases and assumptions about students' backgrounds.
- Communicate with families in a timely manner that is accessible and easily understood.
- Cooperate, coordinate, and collaborate with families to enhance learning opportunities, personal and academic growth, and school success for all students.
- Acknowledge positive and appropriate student conduct, while striving to recognize and eliminate disproportionality in discipline. Administer discipline fairly, consistently, and equitably, as required.
- Apply de-escalation strategies and provide time and space for students and/or staff to reset. Request support as needed.

KTEC HIGH SCHOOL

Family Best Practices

- Support your child’s attendance and engagement in all learning experiences.
- Create a learning environment at home to support your child’s academic and social-emotional learning.
- Encourage and reinforce the importance of your child building positive relationships by demonstrating the acceptance of differences with regards to, but not limited to, race, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, religion, language, disability, etc.
- Support your child in using self-care strategies to help achieve their goals and maintain well-being.
- Establish regular communication with your child’s teachers to clarify learning expectations and support academic and social emotional progress.
- Encourage your child to seek assistance and support from KTEC High staff and advocate for them, when necessary.
- Be active in your child’s educational growth by participating in family activities that support learning and well-being outside of the school setting.
- Send your child to school prepared and ready to learn and, upon returning home, assist them with homework and other school assignments.
- Review Parent Portal on Skyward for student progress reports and report cards and to monitor attendance and academic progress.
- Be knowledgeable about KTEC High policies, regulations, and available resources to support your child.
- Work with staff to reinforce consequences and lessons learned from violations of the Code of Conduct.

Community Partners Support

- Establish and maintain positive relationships with all stakeholders.
- Provide resources (human, financial, etc.) to support the success of school stakeholders.
- Participate in school activities as opportunities to build relationships that are supportive student learning.
- Promote and practice making school a positive, supportive, safe, and welcoming place for all students and staff.
- Be knowledgeable about KTEC policies and regulations.
- Encourage and reinforce the importance of students building positive relationships by demonstrating the acceptance of differences with regards to, but not limited to, race, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, religion, language, disability etc.
- Help students and families access supportive groups or programs designed to improve their academic outcomes, such as counseling, after-school programs, and mental health services available in the school and community
- Invest in student achievement and well-being.

Levels of Responses

These responses should be used in a progressive fashion, with lower-level responses being used before implementing higher level responses.

Level 1	Classroom, Support Responses (Staff-Led) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• These responses are designed to teach appropriate behavior and build and restore relationships, so students understand their impact on others, can learn, and can contribute to a safe environment.</li> <li>• When appropriate, teachers may engage the student’s support system to ensure successful learning and consistency of responses and change the conditions that contribute to the student’s inappropriate or disruptive behavior.</li> </ul>
Level 2	Classroom, Support, and Removal Responses (Staff-Led) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• These responses are designed to teach appropriate behavior and build and restore relationships, so students behave respectfully, understand their impact on others, and can learn and contribute to a safe environment.</li> <li>• Many of these responses engage the student’s support system and are designed to alter conditions that contribute to the student’s inappropriate or disruptive behavior.</li> </ul>
Level 3	Support and Removal Responses (Administrator-Led) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• These responses engage the student’s support system to ensure successful learning, to build and restore relationships, and to alter conditions that contribute to the student’s inappropriate or disruptive behavior.</li> <li>• These responses may involve the short-term removal of a student from the classroom. Such a removal should be limited as much as possible without undermining its ability to adequately address the behavior.</li> </ul>
Level 4	Support, Removal, and Out-of-School Exclusionary Responses (Administrator-Led) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• These responses address serious behavior while keeping the student in school, or, when necessary due to the nature of the behavior or potential implications for future harm, remove a student from the school environment.</li> <li>• They promote safety of the school community by addressing behavior that is dangerous to the student or the community.</li> </ul>
Level 5	Long-term, Out-of-School Exclusionary and Referral Responses (Administrator-Led) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• These responses remove a student from the school environment for an extended period of time because of the severity of the behavior and potential for future harm.</li> <li>• They may involve the placement of the student in an alternate safe environment that provides additional structure and services.</li> </ul>

Responses for Violations of Behavior and Discipline Policies

KTEC High employees have the responsibility for taking appropriate actions when a student is involved in a situation that disrupts the learning environment of a school. When determining the consequences, they take the following into consideration:

- The severity of the incident.
- A student’s previous violations and/or responses for the same or a related offense.
- Whether the offense interfered with the rights/privileges/responsibilities/property of others.
- Whether the offense posed a threat to the health or safety of themselves or others.
- Whether the student has an Individualized Education Plan (IEP), 504 Plan, or Behavioral Intervention Plan.
- The logical relationship between the offense and the response.
- The age-appropriateness of the consequence.
- Any specific responses articulated in Governance Board policy.

Responses are NOT listed in a particular order of use. They should be used in a progressive and integrated fashion.

Definitions

In-school Intervention - The opportunity afforded a student, after the student is removed to an alternate location within the school, to continue to:

- Appropriately progress in the general curriculum.
- Receive the special education and related services specified on the student's IEP if the student is a student with a disability in accordance with KTEC Board policy.
- Receive accommodations as specified in the student's 504 Plan.
- Receive instruction commensurate with the program afforded to the student in the regular classroom.
- Participate with peers as they would in their current education program to the extent appropriate.

Suspension – The denial of a student's right to attend regular classes or school for a specified period for cause. Suspension includes extended suspension, in-school suspension, short-term suspension, or long-term suspension.

- In-School Suspension – The removal of a student within the school building from the student's current education program to another location within the school building for up to, but not more than, 10 school days in a school year for disciplinary reasons as determined by the principal.
- Short-Term Suspension – The removal of a student from school for up to, but not more than, three school days for disciplinary reasons as determined by the principal.
- Long Term Suspension – The removal of a student from school for 4–10 school days for disciplinary reasons as determined by the principal.
- Extended Suspension – The removal of a student from school for 11–45 school days for disciplinary reasons as determined by the principal.

KTEC HIGH SCHOOL

Expulsion – KTEC High School may permanently expel from the school any student whose misconduct, disobedience, and/or violation of the Code of Student Conduct warrants this sanction. No student shall be expelled without the opportunity for a formal expulsion hearing before the KTEC High Board. Expulsions will be brought to the BOD by the principal or designee as a recommendation. The KTEC Board will follow policy and follow due process requirements to ensure that expulsion proceedings will be held in abeyance pending a Manifestation Determination Review for students with disabilities.

Corporal Punishment – KTEC High prohibits the use of corporal punishment, which is defined as physical punishment or undue physical discomfort inflicted on the body of a student for the purpose of maintaining discipline or to enforce school rules.

Restricted Access – Limitation of a student's presence on school property.

Closed Campus- No student may leave campus at any time during the school day without first obtaining parent permission via note from their parents and coordinated with the office as outlined in the student handbook.
